(B) Associate Teacher Comments:

Strengths	Areas of Improvement
Mlle Feeley has adjusted very well to our classroom and our school. She maintains high expectations for all of her students. She does an excellent job connecting material being taught with everyday problems or events that happen in the students' lives. In keeping with established routines in the class, Mlle Feeley uses technology frequently while teaching, encouraging inquiry based learning, and allowing students to work together in groups or pairs. Mlle Feeley always speaks in a manner that her students can understand in both French and English. She uses her class time wisely and treats all of her students fairly and with respect. She exudes excitement for teaching our students.	As Mlle Feeley gains more experience, she is interested in exploring different methods of classroom management. As well, she would like to develop longer range plans that show cross-curricular connections. Mlle Feeley demonstrated significant progress in many areas of her teaching practicum including, her confidence in front of the class, her interactions with her students and working with other staff members. She is always willing to take suggestions to improve her practice. Good luck to Mlle Feeley as she continues on to her final year at the Faculty of Education.
